Why do you want to be a Monitrice/ Midwife's Assistant?

I affirm that I understand that the attaining of clinical skills is not the responsibility of Birth Arts International but my responsibility. Birth Arts International will assist in helping me find a clinical assistant but the responsibility is mine alone. I also know that Birth Arts International is a training organization and they are not responsible for how I use my skills, or how I combine being a Monitrice/Midwife's Assistant with other professional skills. I understand that the title Monitrice/Midwife's Assistant is not regulated in the US and I will check and determine the legalities of my state.
